

AID TO THREATENED NATIONS - 1941

Whereas, the President of the United States, by his courageous stand against all forces of aggression and totalitarianism which beset the world today, has become the symbol of democratic ideals, and

Whereas, he has steadfastly given renewed inspiration and hope to all men who strive for a world of justice, security and freedom, and

Whereas, he has reaffirmed the importance of religious values as a vital factor in preserving the unity and spiritual welfare of mankind,

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Fourteenth Biennial Assembly of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods concur with the recommendation of the National Committee on Peace that this Federation endorse these principles of the administration of the United States, including the sending of full aid to those nations and peoples defending themselves against aggressor nations.

Furthermore, be it resolved, that this endorsement of President Roosevelt's principles, including his emphasis on those freedoms which are essential to democracy—freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom from want, freedom from fear—be spread upon the minutes of this organization and a copy thereof transmitted to President Franklin D. Roosevelt.
